Solar modules from AIKO Solar

AIKO's ABC modules are characterized by a particularly high module efficiency and are manufactured as pure back-contact modules. The high performance classes, the excellent temperature coefficient of -0.26%/°C and the partial shading optimization ensure high yields.

AIKO - AFSIA

For 15 years, AIKO has deeply engaged in the new energy sector, gathering top-tier R& D experts from around the globe, focusing on the R& D of core technologies in PV power generation, providing global customers with highly efficient and reliable solar cells, ABC (All Back Contact) modules, as well as scenario-based integrated solutions for new

Aiko Solar , N-type solar panels , LM8 Solar

In 2022, Aiko was the first manufacturer to launch the world's first ABC module. ABC technology combines N-type solar cells with passivation and back contact structures, resulting in the most efficient panels on the market, exceeding 23% power conversion efficiency .
