Overview

During the Planning Board meeting on May 21, 2025, the council unanimously agreed to move forward with the project, which is expected to generate 5 megawatts of clean energy. The project, spearheaded by Kearsarge Solar LLC, aims to utilize a 21.4-acre portion of the 52.9-acre capped. Concord may finally be joining the list of places putting solar farms atop their closed landfills. The final city permission for a 6.7-megawatt DC solar array on Old Turnpike Road near the city transfer station is expected to come from the Planning Board this month. If all goes well, by next spring. The City of Concord, New Hampshire (City) is seeking a proposal from Solar Energy Developers (Respondents) to lease land at the City-owned capped landfill parcel at 77 Old Turnpike Road, Concord, New Hampshire (Premises), described below, for the exclusive development of a solar photovoltaic system. On behalf of the City of Concord and Kearsarge Energy (d/b/a Kearsarge Old Turnpike Road LLC) (Kearsarge), we are submitting this letter in response to the comments discussed in phone calls regarding technical aspects of the application regarding the solar photovoltaic (PV) development project. Concord is on the verge of making a significant leap towards renewable energy by potentially establishing a large solar array at its closed landfill. A proposed 6.7-megawatt DC solar installation, located on Old Turnpike Road near the city's transfer station, is pending final approval from the.
