By connecting to the GPS network, the Astron adjusts at the touch of a button to your time zone and, by taking all the energy it needs from light alone, never needs a battery change. Seiko Astron GPS Solar models accurately shows the time at your current location anywhere on earth. A solar watch is not recharged even though it was exposed to light. Is it broken?

Sufficient strength of light and amount of time are necessary in order to recharge sufficiently. In case the strength of light and amount of time are not enough, there is a possibility of insufficient recharging. Also, expose the whole solar cell to the light source vertically. If a part of the cell is hidden by sleeve, battery is exhausted, it requires a long time for recharging in Japan; we are also releasing a leaflet sample in English. We believe that the leaflet can be utilized in each country attached to solar.
